Men's Book Study starting this week! We will be studying a book that speaks to the situation that we are currently experiencing in our country and in many relationships. It is written by Dr. Barry Corey, president of Biola University, titled "Love Kindness: Discover the Power of a Forgotten Christian Virtue." In this book, filled with stories from his travels around the globe, Barry shows us the forgotten way of kindness. It is a life that calls us to put ourselves at risk. A life that calls us to hope. A life with "a firm center and soft edges." It is the life Christ invites us to follow, no matter what the cost. We will meet via Zoom on Tuesday evenings beginning January 26th at 7PM. Please contact John Spurrier (717- 668-5876, jspurrier47@gmail.com) if you are interested.

Please join us for our first ever Zoom Congregational Council Meeting. We will meet on February 6 at 10:00. In the tradition of our Congregational Council Meeting Brunch, we are planning to provide a small brunch for your family. Please sign up to receive this treat by January 31 using the link that was sent out by email. A small brunch treat will be delivered to your home prior to the meeting so we can "share" a meal together! If we have a large area to cover or many houses to deliver to, we may need to adjust our plans, so stay tuned! The Council Meeting packet will be sent at a later date along with the Zoom link.

The Wednesday morning women's Bible study group is meeting again (via Zoom) at 9:00 a.m. From now until the end of March, join us as we fellowship, pray, and study some of the attributes of God using Jen Wilkin's book "In His Image." Contact Naomi (naomi@dillsburgbic.org) if you want to connect with the group!
