What has God been saying lately? How have you been encountering him recently?

What does he seem to be saying? How can we help each other hear/encounter God more clearly?

When in your life have you felt the most alone (it is ok, if it is right now)?

How does it impact your understanding of the Holy Spirit to think of him being intimately connect to Jesus?

In other words, what did you think about the possibility Rob suggested that John 14.18 was referring to the Holy Spirit?

What do you think about Rob's suggestions that obeying God's commands seems to be connected to experiencing his presence in John 14?

Of these three, which is the biggest battle for you?
