Between Heaven and Earth

Acts 1:4-11, 2:1-8

1. Read these passages out loud. What stands out to you? As you picture what is happening, where are you? Who do you identify with?
2. Are Jesus' words of promise to his disciples comforting to you, or not? Have you ever struggled to wait for God to move? Is it hard for you to not know the timing of God's plans?
3. What promises of Jesus do you need to hear (or hear again) today?
4. Are any of the signs of God's presence exciting to you? Are any of them confusing? Why were (or are) these signs important?
5. What signs of God's presence have you seen? Where have you encountered burning bushes in your life? How are you longing to see or feel the Holy Spirit at work?
6. How can you bear witness this week? What language could you speak that might be meaningful to another person? In what way could your "with-ness" be a witness to the love of God?
7. How can we pray for you?
