What is your assessment of Nicodemus? Do you think he was a follower of Jesus? Does he leave this story believing him?

In what ways or where in your life do you focus on HOW questions?

How might Jesus be an answer?

Koine Greek did not have quotation marks. So, it is not at all clear whether John 3.16-21 is said by Jesus or simply written by John. Do you think that John 3.16-21 is written by John (alone but certainly through the inspiration and guidance of the Holy Spirit) or by Jesus? Beyond disturbing what we have always thought, does it matter?

If belief is a combination of belief, trust, and commitment, where is your belief strongest and weakest?

In what ways do your actions reflect your love?

In what way might your actions form your love?

How might we become better disciples of Jesus, by seeing our deeds as being “in God”?
