If Craig Koester is right that believers keep their clothing undefiled by resisting the religious, economic, and social priorities and practices that violate their commitments to God, Christ, and the Christian community. Craig Koester

How dirty are your clothes?

What do we (I) need to keep in mind in order to follow Jesus faithfully in our setting?

What in our (my) lives would meet with Jesus' approval?

Where is our (my) obedience and witness falling short?

What promises from God do we (I) need to take to heart?
