Questions about Gratitude and Generosity

How costly is your “sacrifice of praise”?

How much does it cost you to “openly profess his name”?

How much does it cost to do good?

How much does it cost to share with others?

Questions about Habit

Rob suggested that we Protestants have not paid much attention to the spiritual power and importance of habit, with the possible exception of devotions and prayer. Do you agree? Why do you think that is?

What habit of gratitude might you begin to form this week and how can we help each other?

Questions for/from the Prayer Guide

1. Do you have enough margin in your schedule to joyfully go above and beyond in service to others? if not, what can you change to make more room for helping others?

2. How is Jesus working to actively grow your relationship with him in your current season of life?

3. If God said yes to all of your prayers, would the people and places around you begin to look more like heaven?

4. Are there any ways that Jesus is inviting you to tangibly care for someone in the midst of their pain?
